

Daily Democrat.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY HAROLD HUGHES & CO.
OFFICE—
South side Green St., two doors below Customhouse.

SATURDAY, MARCH 10, 1866.

Arrival and Departure of Trains.

JONESVILLE NEW ALBANY & CHICAGO R. R.		DETROIT		AMERICA
morning Express	12:30 A. M.
night Express	12:30 A. M.
Jeffersonville Railroad
morning Express	12:30 A. M.
night Express	12:30 A. M.
Louisville and Nashville R. R.
morning Express	12:30 A. M.
night Express	12:30 A. M.
LOUISVILLE AND FRANKFORT R. R.
morning Express	12:30 A. M.
night Express	12:30 A. M.
Frankfort and Louisville
morning Express	12:30 A. M.
night Express	12:30 A. M.
Arrival and Departure of Mail.
We publish below the time of the arrival and departure of the mails, which will prove of interest to our readers:
First St. Louis	12:30 A. M.
Indiansburg & Philadelphia	12:30 A. M.
Queso, or New York	12:30 A. M.
Frankfort and Louisville	12:30 A. M.
way mail	12:30 A. M.
Frankfort and way mail	12:30 A. M.
Louisville and Cincinnati	12:30 A. M.
Louisville and Evansville	12:30 A. M.
Evansville, Wabash, Friday and Saturday	12:30 A. M.
Shawneetown, Saturday	12:30 A. M.
Wabash, Monday, Wednesday and Friday	12:30 A. M.
Leavenworth, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday	12:30 A. M.
Leavenworth, Wednesday	12:30 A. M.
Want Advertisements.
The Want, For Sale, For Rent and other advertisements of that class, will be found on the third page.
Correspondence.
We solicit voluntary correspondence from all parts of the country, and will pay for it when used.
Police Court.
The court-room was full at the time we entered yesterday morning, a number of persons present having no doubt been brought hither to hear the trial of Mr. Thompson, of the Freedmen's Bureau, for obstructing the course of justice. The motion, as to one indictment, was sustained, while the other was overruled.
The dockets, which has been under call during the week, was closed to-day, during which time a large number of cases have been disposed of, the particulars of which will be found in another part of the paper. During the call of the dockets the court-room is generally crowded with the parties interested, and witnesses in the different cases, so that by the arrangement of our court-room it is almost impossible to procure one's seat, except by the expense of many more, Pat. Dillon, and his deputies, the most perfect order was preserved. The summoning of witnesses, jurors, and other business imposed by the dockets, makes the duties of the marshal very arduous; yet, in every particular, the business connected with the office of marshal has been properly and expeditiously dispatched.
The following business was disposed of yesterday morning. The only cases called were those of misdemeanors, and, as there are no points of particular interest in them, they will be found in the paragraphs of fines imposed: John Young $5; Nettie Landrum $5; John Kinser $5; Minnie Miller, negro, 10; James Padgett $10; Samud Donovan $5.
Constantine Johnston, Harriet Fletcher, and Daniel Lehman, all boys, were presented as suspected felons. They were sent to the house of reformation.
David Roth, who was presented on an ordinance warrant, was fined $20.
N. K. Isler and George Thompson were presented to the court as suspected felons. They were required to give bond each in the sum of $500.
Leopold Lechner, a turned over by the military, having been arrested for carrying concealed a deadly weapon and paddling without license. The witness not appearing he was discharged.
Geo. Carr, alias Conley, stealing a watch from William Ross. Continued until to-day.
Federal Court.
The following business was done yesterday:
The case of W. R. Price, charged with forging quartermaster's vouchers, was continued until the next term of the court, and the accused admitted to bail in the sum of $10,000.
The charge against W. C. McCullum, for piloting without license, was dismissed.
A motion, made on a former occasion, for a writ of mandamus certiorari, was taken up. The facts in the case are these: J. B. Wilson, who was an officer in the service, was suspended and indicted by the Fayette circuit court for interfering with elections and preventing voters from exercising their right of suffrage. He petitioned the court to have the case removed from the circuit court of Fayette to the United States district court. The entire day was spent in the argument of the case before Judge Beck, Esq., of Lexington, for the petitioner, and by Judge R. A. Buckner, of Lexington, who resisted the motion. The argument in the case will be closed by Judge Bodley, of this city, who will also render the motion. This case is of great interest, as it will involve some very important points to the public. The court meets again at 10 o'clock this morning.
CHANCERY COURT.—This court, the Hon. Henry Pitts presiding, met at the usual hour yesterday morning. The following cases were decided:
S. Zeier vs. Satterwhite; decree for plaintiff. Pleinigen vs. Carr & Arbe; decree for defendant. Kaufman vs. Goldsmith; decree for plaintiff. Kent vs. Gray; decree for plaintiff. Murray vs. Douglass; decree for plaintiff.
The following cases were submitted: H. L. Baker vs. McGriff; H. D. Duncan vs. W. H. Timberlake; White & Salvage vs. Jno. Cullen; W. H. Huling & Co. vs. Meinhewander; W. C. Ford vs. W. C. Traube, &c.; Alfred Harris vs. H. Brenden; W. H. Barclay vs. F. G. Hill.
The following cases were set for hearing on next Friday: Fielder, Livingston, vs. W. D. Timely; Miles T. Steele vs. Gordon; S. S. Steele vs. J. W. D. Timely; Thos. D. Hobson; Elmer L. Langley vs. Josephine Langley; J. H. R. Paper vs. Theo. Cook; Michael Kent vs. L. M. Shreve; J. D. Southward vs. C. Page; Louisville rolling mill vs. city of Louisville; Bank of Kentucky vs. E. Worthington; D. Goodwin vs. E. Goodwin; Carl vs. steamboat St. Patrick; F. Bresford vs. G. W. Marshall.
The court meets again next Friday.
ACADEMY OF MUSIC, LATE WOOD'S THEATER.—The Fat Contributor will positively unroll his splendidly executed scenes of the oil regions, entitled "Petrolianomorphian," with a humorous descriptive lecture by the Fat Contributor. Booked seats for sale at Louis Tripp's music store, where the box-sheets for the entire week are open.
Geo. W. Belcher, the great sugar refiner of St. Louis, died in that city a few days ago.

Excitement at the Wharf—A Negro Attempts the Murder of a White Man.

There was quite an excitement at the wharf about five o'clock last evening, and, for a time, it seemed that Lynch law would be fully enacted in certain parts of the city. We received a telegram from the Freedmen's Bureau, which advised us that two Indians had been shot at the wharf, and that we were there in search of an Indian, who we started with the officers to the scene of action. The river was reached and the steamer Abeona, about to leave out for St. Louis, boarded. In the front part of the boat was a negro soldier, guarded by the officers of the boat to prevent the passengers from killing him. Upon inquiry, we found the following to be about the facts: The negro soldier, whom we did not know, had gone to the upper guard, where he got his gun, and was shot by the guard. The negro soldier was tried for murder, and the indictment was dismissed. The other indictment was held to be good, and the case, at the request of Capt. Thompson, was continued until the next day.

Shelby Circuit Court—The Trial of Captain Terrell—Only Six Jurors Impaneled.

The Shelby circuit court, the Hon. Geo. W. Johnson on the bench, is still in session.

Yesterday Captain David Martin, commonly called Black Dave, of guerrilla notoriety, was tried upon an indictment for horse stealing. The jury found him not guilty.

The case against Captain Edwin Terrell, the guerrilla hunter, indicted for murder, is progressing slowly. Up to the present, the trial has been suspended, and the court adjourned. The defense is that the negro was near by, and the negro was shot by the guard.

The styles of spring goods shown are as follows:

Scott, Davison & Co., Wholesale and Retail Clothiers, Corner of Sixth and Main.

There has been very great trade that drew as much custom to our city, and for which we derived as much profit. It is not only the mere retail trade of the State, but the business of furnishing stocks to dealers in the South and West. Having this in view it was with great satisfaction we reviewed the ample stock of the firm whose name heads this article.

The building, conveniently situated in a business portion of the city, surrounded by wholesale dealers, is a very handsome and extensive four-story edifice, belonging to the Louisville hotel block.

Books on the third floor are to be got at the new hoop skirt factory, No. 70 Market street, between Second and Third, and sell the latest fashion in hoop-skirt material, now w hilst.

Local Notices.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

NATURE'S OWN REMEDIES

For other New Advertisements see classified headings elsewhere.

WM. W. MORRIS & CO.

Congress Spring Water.

Empire Spring Water.

Columbian Spring Water.

AMUSEMENTS.

Louisville Theater.

Corner Fourth and Green streets.

P. L. KELLOGG Acting Stage Manager

M. L. MALLON Stage Manager

Two grand performances, afternoon and night.

Fourth appearance of the beautiful young actress, SARAH F. YOUNG, MAN.

ON SATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 10TH, 1866, will be presented the beautiful play of INGMAR; or, The Greek Maiden.

Particulars will be given in the paper.

MISS SARAH F. YOUNG, MAN.

Miss Fred. Muller

and others.

Costumes by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Music by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Lighting by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Scenery by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Properties by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Costumes by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Lighting by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Properties by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Costumes by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Lighting by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Properties by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Costumes by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Lighting by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Properties by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Costumes by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Lighting by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Properties by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Costumes by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Lighting by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Properties by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Costumes by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Lighting by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Properties by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Costumes by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Lighting by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Properties by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Costumes by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

Lighting by Mrs. J. C. THAYER.

